

Table of contents

Foreword .....	7
INTRODUCTION – Approximation of substantive criminal law: The new institutional and decision-making framework and new types of interaction between EU actors Anne WEYEMBERGH (in collaboration with Serge DE BIOLLEY) .....	9
PART I TRANSVERSAL APPROACH
The European Parliament Resolution of 22 May 2012 on a EU approach to criminal law Dr. Cornelis DE JONG.....	37
Harmonised Union policies and the harmonisation of substantive criminal law John A.E. VERVAELE.....	43
Approximation of substantive criminal law and the establishment of the European Public Prosecutor’s Office Katalin LIGETI .....	73
Approximation of substantive criminal law provisions in the EU and fundamental principles of criminal law Maria KAIAFA-GBANDI.....	85
The way forward: A general part of European criminal law Jeroen H. BLOMSMA & Christina PERISTERIDOU.....	117

PART II
SECTORIAL APPROACH

Introductory reflection on evaluation and its lacunae Gisèle VERNIMMEN-VAN TIGGELEN .....	139
Content and impact of approximation: The case of terrorist offences (Council Framework Decisions of 2002 and 2008) Pedro CAEIRO and Miguel Ângelo LEMOS.....	153
Content and impact of approximation – The case of drug trafficking Robert KERT & Andrea LEHNER .....	169
The content and impact of approximation: The case of trafficking in human beings Francesca GALLI .....	189
CONCLUSION – The way forward Anne WEYEMBERGH.....	219
Annexes.....	225
List of contributors.....	249
Table of contents .....	251